A Wider World: Portraits in an Adolescence Kate Simon

1986 Perennial Library(Random House) trade paperback, 2nd printing. Kate Simon (Absinthe Cocktails). he author vivifies the people who figured in her life as a teenager: a disapproving father she escaped by means of low-paying jobs during the Depression; her spunky mother, an advocate of women's rights; radical intellectuals who encouraged her love of the arts. There is a great deal about Simon's sexual relations and the amatory experiences of friends, and about lesbian professors during her years at Hunter College.
