Jesus was welcomed to Jerusalem as a king yet put to death less than a week later. How could this happen? Did God's plan to save his people go horribly wrong? In these memorable short stories Bob Hartman, author of the best-selling Lion Storyteller Bible, brings the characters and events of Easter vividly to life for younger readers. They can share in the excitement of the day Jesus rode into Jerusalem on a donkey, the drama of his death on a cross, the joy of his friends on the first Easter morning, and more...
