Aide worker Katy McMann was tending to the wounded in a war-torn country when she stumbled upon the cause of the conflict—the king of Baraq. The enigmatic Nikolas Ramsey hid among imprisoned men until he could find a way to restore himself to the throne. In the confines of the prison their chemistry sizzled, and Katy wished circumstances were different. She kept his dangerous secret, but then he asked her to make a sacrifice for the Baraqi people—have his child for the future of his kingdom. Fulfilling his request might save the country and Nick, but would it cost Katy her heart?
