Compact reference guides to college scholarships and other awards for minority students At a time when decreased personal savings, shrinking college endowments, a weak economy, and a host of other factors are contributing to rising college costs, students are encouraged to take advantage of every opportunity they can find to pay for their education. Each of these 3 new guides brings together --in one compact convenient source--detailed profiles of scholarships, grants, prizes, forgivable loans, and fellowships for African American, Asian American, and Hispanic students. And each boasts a style and format suitable for every student and parent, from families with first-time college students to experienced parents who've already been through the process. Features
