La gatta Arcibalda e altre storie (Spiritualità) (Italian Edition) Adriana Zarri

Adriana Zarri – poetessa orante, teologa, donna libera, eremita comunicante – condivideva con gli animali i sentimenti e anche le sofferenze, da quelle del leone obbligato nel circo a rinunciare alla sua maestà, fino al cappone o al toro delle corride, torturati per la nostra ingordigia o la nostra crudeltà.

Al pari degli antichi considerava simbolo della contemplazione la civetta o il gufo, animali della notte che sono in grado di scorgere quello che gli altri non possono vedere. Questo rispetto e amore per gli animali – per i gatti, soprattutto, e, tra questi, per la sua gatta nera Arcibalda – costituiscono una forma elevata di «ecologia», che è un'apertura a quella grande patria che è il mondo, e che comincia dalle persone (e dagli animali) che sono accanto a noi.

Il libro raccoglie gli articoli “animalisti” che Adriana Zarri ha pubblicato sulla rivista Rocca dal 1984 fino al giorno prima di morire.
