Best remembered for his illustrations for Lewis Carrolls Alices Adventures in Wonderland and Through the Looking-Glass, Sir John Tenniel (18201914) was a highly respected and influential political cartoonist for Punch magazine for more than fifty years. He was knighted for his artistic achievements by Queen Victoria in 1893. Originally published as black-and-white drawings in 1865 and 1871, the color illustrations reproduced in this calendar capture the imagination of the storyteller and the artist. Beloved by generations of children and adults alike, Alice continues to enthrall readers more than 150 years after her creation.
