LOS TÓPICOS DEL BUDISMO (Spanish Edition) Bernard Faure

La comprensión del budismo está enmascarada por una serie de ideas preconcebidas que hemos proyectado sobre las distintas tradiciones budistas originarias de Asia. Estas ideas, a veces, simplemente erróneas o, la mayoría de las veces, parcialmente ciertas, nos ofrecen una visión simplificada y superficial del budismo y ocultan su riqueza y profundidad. Bernard Faure se propone “desenmascarar” el budismo abordando los principales tópicos y clichés que tiñen nuestra comprensión del mismo. Por ejemplo: el budismo no es una religión sino una filosofía; el budismo niega la existencia del yo; el budismo predica la reencarnación; el budismo es una religión pacífica; el budismo es compatible con la ciencia, o el budismo es un tipo de terapia. Estos son solo algunos de los prejuicios que tenemos en Occidente sobre el budismo y que, como nos desvela el autor, lejos de originarse en las tradiciones asiáticas, proceden de los valores culturales de la modernidad occidental (racionalismo, individualismo, fantasma del nihilismo, crítica protestante del catolicismo, orientalismo, espiritualidad new age...), unos procesos que han configurado un budismo aislado de sus distintos contextos históricos y culturales. Por ello, la lectura de este libro resulta a la vez indispensable, reveladora y desconcertante. El lector no quedará indiferente ante la caída de mitos y tópicos sobre el budismo, algo necesario si queremos tener una comprensión más profunda y sutil del pensamiento y las prácticas budistas en el mundo.
