Stringsmith's Void: Fantasy Adventure Bernard Harold Curgenven

Josh is a musical wizard. His guitar has the ability to take one on a fantasy adventure. It takes him on an adventure through a void, where he faces the danger of the unknown. Here he is also met with other dangers, far worse than the unknown! Josh tries to escape this fantasy world, but his feeble attempts seem to lead him back to square one each time. His main objective is to avoid the dark void and the thick dark fog that attracts scary creatures. He finally meets his audience, but could these masked creatures be associates from a past lifetime? At first they portray children, but then they evolve before his eyes. In his quest to avoid the dark void, he is misled by visions. This leads him to wonder whether the dark void is in fact a doorway to another dimension. Josh finally gives in to curiosity and desperation. This is a short fantasy adventure, designed to keep the whole family on edge.
