I Am 7.5 Billion Human Sajith Buvi Look not at my eyes, for they are black, blue, green, or brown. Look not at my face, for it may attract or repel. Look not at my body, for it is just an agglomeration of molecules. Look not at my skin, for it can be white, black, brown, or any number of minute pigments. Look not at my clothes, for they are only dyes and designs. Look not at my home, for it can be high or low. Look not at my job, for it is a sign of my helplessness or my greed. Look not at my age, for it is beyond me. Look not at my personality, for it is part my father, part my mother, and the rest no one knows. Look not at me as God's child, for my God and yours may never see eye to eye. Look not at me as an animal, for we cherry pick our pets: A brutalized dog turns our hearts into pain factories while the little calves, piglets, and chicks that end up on our dinner plates easily make us salivate. Look not at me as a product of nature, for we all have our own definitions of nature.

Look not at me as your friend, for a friend
