The Big God Theory is the story of one American Christian's journey to joy and peace of mind. For over 40 years, the author struggled with disgruntlement and confusion in a conservative Christian church that often said one thing while doing something altogether different. This fourth generation member of a historically significant Protestant denomination was falsely accused, shunned, castigated, and ultimately shown the door by spiritual leaders he had loved and trusted. It was only then, when he and his daughter had been cast adrift, that this quadriplegic single dad found what more and more American Christians are discovering every day: God is bigger!
