Social media is changing the way people buy. What started just a few years ago as a quirky new way to find people, discuss events, and connect has since woven itself into the fabric of our lives. More than two billion people now use social media on a regular basis as their single source for news, to research everything from cars to homes to burritos, to find, meet, and marry, and to connect and become part of the communities behind their favorite brands and companies. People buy from those that they know, like, and trust. That's always been the case, but what is changing is how people buy? Social media is redefining the buyer/seller relationship, and the winners are the ones that can form meaningful, authentic relationships with their social media communities.
