ROMANZO BREVE (72 pagine) - ZOMBIE - Anche quando la morte cammina per le strade, il vero orrore riesce sempre a nascondersi nei posti meno sospetti...

All'inizio è un'alba come tante altre, prima che il sangue cominci a tingercela un po' troppo di rosso. Quando i morti si rialzano e invadono le strade, Lucas è costretto a fare i conti con una realtà spietata e terrificante, che mette a dura prova la sua razionalità. Si ritrova ben presto a dover guidare un gruppetto di superstiti in fuga, che come lui possono affidarsi soltanto al proprio fiato e alla speranza di lasciare la città. Lottando con tutte le forze per non essere divorati da un mondo terribilmente affamato, Lucas e gli altri scopriranno che in realtà il vero orrore non è quello che digrigna i denti alle loro spalle, ma quello che si nasconde in un laboratorio ben più spaventoso del mondo degli zombie...

Davide De Boni, vicentino, classe '93, studia Medicina e Chirurgia a Padova. Due suoi racconti si sono intrufolati nella rosa dei semifinalisti del "Premio Campiello Giovani" nelle edizioni 2011 e 2012. Da sempre appassionato di lettura e scrittura, lotta quotidianamente contro il tempo per conciliare queste attività con gli impegni di studio. Nel 2015 ha pubblicato con Delos Digital "La danza dei morti" (collana "Chew-9") ed è riuscito a fare capolino nella rivista "Robot" con il racconto "Fantasmi dal passato" (contest "I vagoni di Trainville").
