Modern British Potters & Their Studios David Whiting

An in-depth study of 24 artists, their work and studios. The book will look at the work, inspiration and the studio of each potter. Almost a mini biography on many of the most prominent and exciting artists around, the book looks at artists making everything from domestic ware to sculpture, and includes Clive Bowen, Walter Keeler, Sandy Brown, Ken Eastman, Neil Brownsword and Claire Curneen amongst many others. Both a visual and informative book, showcasing work alongside professional shots of the artists studios, with a well-written summary of the artist. This book offers an ideal opportunity to review a variety of some of the most interesting potters together, throwing the book open to a wide audience of ceramic lovers.
